

Act of 9 February 1861

Statute I, Chapter 1 – An Act to continue in force certain laws of the United States of America

Source: The Statutes at Large of the Provisional Government of the Confederate States of America, page 27.

Published: Richmond, 1862.

Continued in force the 1859 Postal Laws and Regulations of the United States except where they were changed or rescinded by legislation of the Confederate Congress.

CHAPTER I.—An Act to continue in force certain laws of the United States of America.

February 9, 1861.

Be it enacted by the Confederate States of America in Congress assembled, That all the laws of the United States of America in force and in use in the Confederate States of America on the first day of November last, and not inconsistent with the Constitution of the Confederate States, be and the same are hereby continued in force until altered or repealed by the Congress.

Certain laws of the United States continued in force.

ADOPTED February 9, 1861.