Postal Innovation of the Classic Era
Evolution Leading to Modernization

It's Not Too Late!

In this year of many firsts, the 2020 Postal History Symposium by the American Philatelic Society will be entirely virtual, with a series of webinars and online exhibits during the week of October 26-30. So, wherever you are located, you can participate!

This year's theme is Postal Innovation of the Classic Era - Evolution Leading to Modernization. The symposium is jointly sponsored by the American Philatelic Research Library, the American Philatelic Society, the Smithsonian National Postal Museum and this year the U.S. Philatelic Classics Society.

Scott Trepel, Steven Walske, James Milgram and Trish Kaufmann are among the featured speakers at this year's symposium. Complete details are available at the APS web site. You will need to login to the APS web site in order to register for the webinars, but creating an account is easy and free.

You can create a login and register at <https://stamps.org/postal-history-symposium/event> and sign up for specific webinars. You'll receive an email that contains the links for the specific webinars you select.
